Dear Mr. Noe:

Will you please send me by first class mail, C. O. D., one glossy print of photo showing full sized likeness of a silver ingot good for 50 taels in China. I should like to have photo like the illustration on page 758 (bottom) of the current issue of Asia.

I'll be willing to pay a nominal price for the picture, including the carriage charges. It'll be greatly appreciated if you will kindly send this as promptly as possible.

Very truly yours,

Tom White

Dear Sir:

Your letter just at hand and the price for a print of the Chinese 50 tael piece will be $2.00. I have permission from Asia magazine for the use of this. Credit, if possible, should be given to both Asia and the American Numismatic Society. On receipt of your letter, we will have this photograph forwarded to you.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Wood:

Thanks for your letter of the 3rd relative to the photo of the Chinese 50-tael piece.

You will please send me by C. O. D., first class mail, one glossy print showing full sized likeness of this object. Should there be any delay in the C. O. D. remittance it will be because I am temporarily out of town; but if shipment is made promptly enough I can get it before leaving for the holidays. I'll appreciate it a lot if you'll be good enough to hurry it along.

I shall be glad to do what I can to have the A.N.S. given credit for the photo.

Very truly yours,

Tom White
